

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL THERAPY
(12-month, Non-Tenure Track)
May 13, 2025

Samford University's School of Health Professions seeks a collaborative faculty member interested in serving in a Christian university environment to apply for the position of Assistant Professor in the Department of Physical Therapy. This full-time, non-tenure-track faculty position is a 12-month appointment and will begin during Summer/Fall 2025.

Qualified candidates will be a graduate of a CAPTE-accredited physical therapy program or equivalent and have a minimum of five years of experience as a practicing physical therapist by start date. In addition, candidates must hold a clinical doctorate (DPT) or academic doctoral degree (PhD, DSc, EdD, or similar) by start date. Additional requirements include:

- Eligibility for licensure as a Physical Therapist in Alabama
- Expertise in orthopedic and/or sports physical therapy practice
- A commitment to academic excellence
- Ability to work effectively with faculty, students and colleagues
- Willingness to engage in community outreach activities, including serving in our pro-bono physical therapy clinic
- Willingness to support the Christian mission of Samford University and the College of Health Sciences
- Willingness to travel for university-related purposes, as needed

Major responsibilities of the position include but are not limited to:

- Teach courses in the DPT curriculum
- Assist the PT program with assessment and learning outcomes
- Engage in scholarly activity, as appropriate
- Engage in university and professional service
- Actively mentor and advise students in the DPT program

Preference will be given to candidates with the following qualifications:

- APTA board certification in Orthopedics or Sports Physical Therapy
- Experience teaching in a CAPTE-accredited PT program

Salary is dependent upon qualifications, clinical experiences, previous academic teaching experiences, and scholarship accomplishments.
