CREATING DRAMA // FOR HEARING

Many churches will speak these familiar words somewhere in worship. Join with Christians around the world and do the same!

Alleluia! Christ is risen!

He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Tell the Easter story in a new way. Consider using Eugene Peterson's translation from The Message.

FINDING ART // FOR SEEING

Consider hanging white and gold banners in your worship space, or doing something creative with fabric of the same color.

Purchase and use a collection of crosses by Lisa Shulist at [eyekons.com] An example is below.

LIVING WORSHIP // FOR DOING

At the heart of Easter is a celebration of new life. Encourage worshipers to plant something outdoors, at their home, to create new life in this season. Let it serve as a reminder of the new life that Christ can bring. And, share it on social media with @samfordcwa.

Invite families or young people to take flowers from the flowering of the cross to those who may be homebound or in nursing homes.

MAKING SPACE // FOR WORSHIPPING

If you placed an old, wooden cross in your worship space during Lent, leave it up for Easter. Place chicken wire around it, and invite worshipers to bring fresh flowers from their gardens (or the supermarket) and flower the cross before the service. You might delegate someone to wait at the cross and guide worshipers through the placement of the flowers.

WRITING POETRY// FOR PRAYING

Here is an Easter collect that you might use. Or, use it as a model to write your own prayer.

Creator of the universe, you made the world in beauty, and restore all things in glory through the victory of Jesus Christ. We pray that, wherever your image is still disfigured by poverty, sickness, selfishness, war and greed, the new creation in Jesus Christ may appear in justice, love, and peace, to the glory of your name. Amen.

Use this prayer from the Worship Sourcebook as a source for your own extemporaneous prayer.

*God of life,
we rejoice in the resurrection of your Son,
his defeat over death, and his gift of new life. We praise you for the reflections of that new life in creation . . .
in nations and governments around the world . . .*

in the ministry of the church universal . . .
in the sacrifice of those who serve . . .
in our new life in Christ . . .

To you as the giver of new life and renewed hope we bring our prayers:
for creation and its care . . .
for our nation and its leaders . . .
for this community and those who are in authority . . .
for the church universal as it works on your behalf . . .
for this local church in its ministry . . .
for persons with particular needs . . .
We pray all this in your name, the Lord and giver of life. Amen.
